

Our editing business

INTARZIA®

Intarzia Magazine, edited for the first time in the summer of 1997 is at present the leader of the specialized press from Romania. The publication addresses the entire community in the wood industry, having readers from different socio-professional categories. Having been present at the top of specialized publications for more than ten years, Intarzia has 170 pages, it is published monthly in 4000 copies and it is distributed nationwide based on subscriptions or free of charge through direct marketing.

www.intarzia.ro

image